A fundamental objective of our hearings will be to provide the members with background information and analysis on several of the past House reorganization efforts. All of us need to know what lessons or insights can be learned from what has happened in the past. Were real reforms achieved or were some of the boxes simply shifted around or committees renamed with no significant improvement in how we conduct or business We also need to hear from experts who can perhaps identify other major institutional reform areas that merit review and attention by this subcommittee. Our ranking member Louise Slaughter and I plan to include a panel of former Cabinet Secretaries at todays hearing. We wanted to consider their views on how they worked with the Congress committees. However, many of the people we invited were out of the country or had conflicting engagements and they could not be with us today, so we will try to schedule that panel...
