Doubletap Books, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In the murky world of espionage, where shadowy intelligence operatives struggle against one another to gain tactical advantage, things can often go very, very wrong. This is one such story. Told by a former master CIA spy, truth is woven with fiction to create a gripping yet authentic action packed tale of real intelligence operatives at war. From Somalia, to Ethiopia, to Hong Kong, to Paris, we follow the path of CIA case officer Mac MacMurphy as he uncovers an intricate Iranian plot to draw China into a terrorist alliance against America. But when organizational inertia within the CIA hierarchy disrupts his operational plans, he must resort to unconventional methods to achieve his goals. The unintended consequences of his actions pits MacMurphy against an unstable Chinese case officer in a gritty crescendo of action where only one will survive. The book the CIA tried to keep off the bookshelves! In an early letter to the author, the CIA s Publications Review Board said in part: The Publications Review Board has completed its review of your manuscript entitled The Case Officer. Unfortunately, after a lengthy consultation,the Board determined that we must deny your request to publish this novel. As you are aware, the book.is based in large part on classified information obtained by you while employed by the CIA. Accolades for The Case Officer: Retired CIA case officer Fred Rustmann has written a novel that rings with authenticity -- a story replete with field cunning and tradecraft.(He) draws upon his decades of experience in CIA s clandestine service to craft a story that likely had a modified counterpart in real life.The Case Officer is a book that warrants...
