Not illustrated. 1904 Excerpt: .it would be undesirable to give by Act of Parliament a special power to the. Court of Appeal in this matter. We think the tendency of the recent decisions of the Court is in the direction of extending rather than limiting its jurisdiction in reviewing the decisions of County Court Judges, and that the question what is and what is not serious and wilful misconduct will, in all probability, follow more definite lines in the future than has been the case in the past. In our opinion, the evidence does not justify us in making any recommendation for an alteration of the law. E.--Amount Of Compensation And Methods Of Payment. 183. The next question we have to deal with is The amount of Amount of Compencompensation and methods of payment. First as to compensation to -ation payable to Dependents. The amount of compensation is a fixed...
