Excerpt: . . . 11 moves from campus to campus, with many institutions participating, allowing a needed program to be offered on a periodic basis in sparsely populated areas with-out the typical inefficiencies associated with providing expensive programs in rural communities. Focusing resources on core academic priorities A few states, such as Ohio and Virginia, have instituted productivity reviews that identify undersubscribed majors at all public institutions and reallocate public funds away from those majors if they fall below a designated threshold. The Illinois Prior-ities Quality and Productivity initiative in the mid-1990s pursued this goal by providing a common set of data about individual program performance to institutions. After providing the data, the Illinois Board of Higher Education left the decision about which programs to eliminate up to the institutions so long as they improved institutional performance within established guidelines. Streamlining student transitions...

Reviews

This publication may be really worth a go through, and a lot better than other. It really is writter in simple terms and never difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
