Good News Publishers, United States, 2015. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 137 x 89 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Have you ever wished you could get tickets to major events like the Super Bowl, the Academy Awards, or a presidential inauguration? Getting tickets to important events isn't always easy, and it's usually expensive. But one thing is for sure--if you don't have a ticket, you won't get in. Getting into heaven is a whole lot more important, because heaven is forever. So is hell. The decisions you make in this life determine where your eternal destination will be. And just as with the major events of our culture, you need a ticket to get into heaven, something that proves you should be admitted. Unlike tickets for entertainment events, however, you can't purchase a ticket to heaven. The price for entrance is righteousness--you must be sinless and perfect. That's what you need to enter heaven, since nothing unclean will ever enter it (Revelation 21:27). Since that's the entry requirement, it seems impossible to get in. After all, it's true--we are sinners and far from perfect. The Bible says we all sin and fail to meet God's standards for righteousness (Romans 3:23). Because of that, we are under condemnation and destined to die (John 3:36; Romans 6:23). Despite that, we can find entry into heaven because God has provided a ticket for us. How Do I Get This Heavenly Ticket? Our ticket into heaven comes to us by faith. We can't earn it by doing lots of good deeds, like giving away money or serving the poor. It's only through faith that we gain admittance. The faith we need is to believe that when Jesus, God's sinless Son, died...
