

Southern Fried Rice: Life in a Chinese Laundry in the Deep South

By John Jung

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 240 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 6.1in. x 0.6in. This memoir conveys the experiences, first of my parents and subsequently of our family, the only Chinese people living in Macon, Georgia between 1928 and 1956. It describes our family's isolated existence running a laundry, enduring loneliness as well as racial prejudice for over 20 years, explains why and how it moved across the continent to live in San Francisco near a Chinese community, and relates how each family member adjusted to the challenges and opportunities of their new lives. Some Review Excerpts. . . fascinating and insightful account of Chinese-American family life. . . charming and information. . .
