Excerpt: .influences are insidiously gnawing at the root of the national tree. Why not an organization of American Nationalists to nip the evil in the bud? Or shall we wait, as we usually do, until hell begins to pop, and it is everlastingly too late? Better destroy the viper eggs: they may be hatching soon. Governmental supervision and wise training of Americanborn and foreign-blooded childhood and youth will do much for future preparedness. Drafting your man first and making an efficient American of him afterward is a bad and expensive process. Fight fire with fire. Fight foreignism with Americanism. What I say goes for every citizen. of foreign blood. The Black Hand is in point. Foreign settlements and foreign customs in this country should be swatted good and hard. The whirligig of time may bring us face to face with something very different from Germanism....
