Oxford University Press, 2013. Softcover. Book Condition: New. 15 x 23 cm. This collection of papers and lectures on early Indian history by one of India`s foremost historians focuses on historiography and the changing dimensions of social and cultural history. The essays have been grouped thematically in nine sections : historiography; social and cultural transactions; archaeology and history; pre-Mauryan and Mauryan India; forms of exchange; the society of heroes in the epics and the later tradition of venerating heroes; genealogies and origin myths; the social context of the renouncer; and the present in the past, which looks at how current ideologies make use of the early past. The collective publication of these important pieces-written over the last forty years and published in various journals-makes them newly accessible to Professor Thapar`s many readers. This volume will be indispensable to students and scholars of early Indian history. Contents List of Illustrations I. HISTORIOGRAPHY : 1. Ideology and the Interpretation of Early Indian History 2.
